He Thought She was a Man. A queer case to volving the tax of a prisoner was tried at Memphis, Tenn., on Thursday by Justice Garvin. A few weeks ago the wife of a farmer named Wilson Brooks employed a young woman named Sarab Craig as maid of all work. Sarah hrs a esucy pair of eyes, wears her hair close cropped, and has hayich features. Her masculine appearance aroused the demon of jealousy in Fermer Brooks's breast. He fear ed the maid was a man in disguise. Sarah and his wife had at u dance of time to cul-tivate such other's acquir nance during the farmer's absence in the first. When he was away from home at night, which in quently happened, they occupied the exmertion. His mind was so it flaenced by suspicions that he saw a look of nudue fordness in every passing glauce, a double meaning In every harmless exchange of worrs. Farmer Brocks was in a quantery. Ee broached the matter to his wife and she laughed at him for being "a jealous old He asked Sarah if she was not a man and she promptly denied the impeachment. He wan ed his wife to discharge Sarah, but she refused to do so, and this, insteed of allaylog Brooks's suspicion, only served to inflame is. In this dilemma he applied to Justice Garvin for a warrant for Sarah's arrest. The Recorder at first refused to issue it, but the man persisted, and at length on Brooks's affidavit that to the best of his knowledge and belief Sarah was a man in pertinous, the warrant was issued, and the alleged marquaratier acresied. A:raigned in court, Sarah sword that she was a woman, and the Justice saw no way out of it but to accept her word. Brooks protested so vigorously, however, that at length a woman was sent for, and after the affair had been explained to her she and the prisoner retired to an inner room. A silence like that of death reigned in the court room, while from the inner room came the sounds or giggling. A stalwart deputy sheriff kept guard at the door. In a few minutes the pair re-entered the court room, and the matron testified that the prisoner was of the fe-male sex. The turny part of the affair how ever, was that B ooks weenot serisfied. He firmly believes that Sarah and his wife are deceiving him, and that the witness was al-

CHILDHOOL

When an infant my body broke out all over with an eruption or rash, which became more aggravated as I grew older. Every noted physician in our section was tried or consult-ed. When I came of age I visited Hot Springs, Ark., and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S. and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible Eczema was all gone, not a sign left; my general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease
